

The FCC should not preempt Indiana state law on the Telephone Privacy . Before the law I received between 15 to 20 calls a week now I receive about one call a week.

I do not want to receive sales calls from anyone over the phone it is a waste of my time at home.